Keeping Your Child Safe at Pennine School

How We Keep Your Child Safe

All our staff:

- Know what to do if a child tells them they are being abused, exploited, or neglected
- Understand the process for making referrals to local authority children's social care
- Are aware of their local early help process and their role in it
- Receive Regular safeguarding updates through emails, bulletins and staff meetings

Useful resources for parents:

- Childline: Free and confidential advice at any time
- UK Safer Internet Centre: Report and remove harmful online content
- CEOP Safety Centre: Report online child sexual abuse
- Internet Matters: Age-specific online safety checklists and parental control guides

If You Have Concerns About Your Child

Please contact us immediately if you're worried about your child's safety or wellbeing. Please contact our DSL Sara Webb or Deputy DSL Claire Crowley on 017046 399787.

Additional Support Services
